The Directors may however be at liberty to waive, whether in whole or in part, the payment of such interest.
34. Any sum which by the terms of issue of a share becomes payable on allotment or at any fixed date, whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium, shall for the purposes of these regulations be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date on which, by the terms of issue, the same becomes payable, and in case of non-payment, all the relevant provisions of these regulations as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture or otherwise shall apply as if such sum had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.
35. The Directors may differentiate between the holders as to the amount of calls to be paid and the times of payment.
36. The Directors may, if they think fit, receive from any Member willing to advance the same, all or any part of the moneys uncalled and unpaid upon any shares held by him, and upon all or any of the moneys so advanced may (until the same would, but for such advance, become payable) pay interest at such annual rate not exceeding the maximum rate allowed by law, as may be agreed upon between the Directors and the Members paying such sum in advance.
37. 41. In case of an Equity Security other than a Listed Equity Security, the Directors may decline to recognise any instrument of transfer and refuse to register the transfer if:
- (a) duty in terms of the Duty on Documents and Transfers Act, 1993 (Cap.364, Laws of Malta) if applicable, has not been paid in relation to the instrument of transfer;
 - (b) the instrument of transfer is not left at the Office or at such other place as the Directors may from time to time determine for registration purposes or is not accompanied by the share certificates of the shares to which it relates and/or such other evidence as the Directors may reasonably require as evidence of the right of the transferor to make the transfer (and, if the instrument of transfer is executed by some other person on his behalf, the authority of that person so to do); or
 - (c) the instrument of transfer is not in respect of only one (1) class of Equity Securities; or
 - (d) the instrument of transfer is in respect of Equity Securities pledged in terms of a pledge agreement duly notified to the company and the instrument of transfer is not accompanied by the pledgee's consent to such transfer; or
 - (e) the instrument of transfer is in respect of Equity Securities the transfer of which has been prohibited by law or by an order of the court.

If the Directors refuse to register a transfer, they shall within two (2) months of the date on which the transfer is lodged with the company, send to the transferee notice of the refusal and except in the case of fraud, return to him the instrument of transfer.

The Company may retain any instrument of transfer or a notarised copy thereof, that is duly registered.

42. The registration of transfers may be suspended at such times and for such periods as the Directors may from time to time determine, provided always that such registration shall not be suspended for more than thirty (30) days in any one (1) calendar year.
43. In the case of the death of a holder of an Equity Security, his Equity Securities shall devolve upon his successors by will or by operation of law as the case may be, but nothing herein contained shall release the person or persons to whom the Equity Securities shall devolve, whether sole or joint, from any liability in respect of any Equity Security solely or jointly held by him/them.
44. Any person becoming entitled to a Listed Equity Security in consequence of the death of a Member shall, upon producing such evidence of his title as the Regulated Market may from time to time require, have the right to be registered himself as the holder of the Listed Equity Security or to transfer such Listed Equity Security.

45. Any person becoming entitled to a share not admitted to trading on a Regulated Market in consequence of the death of a Member shall, upon producing such evidence of his title as the Directors may from time to time require, have the right to be registered himself as the holder of the share or to make such transfer thereof as the deceased Member would have himself been entitled.
46. Where, in the case of shares not admitted to trading on a Regulated Market, if a person so becoming entitled shall elect to be registered himself, he shall deliver or send to the Company a notice in writing signed by him stating that he so elects. If he shall elect to have another person registered he shall testify his election by executing to that person a transfer of the share. All the provisions relating to the transfer of shares in these Articles shall be applicable to such transfer.
- PROVIDED that the Directors in the case of unlisted shares, may at any time give notice requiring any such person to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer the share, and if the notice is not complied with within ninety (90) days, the Directors may thereafter withhold payments of all dividends, bonuses or other moneys payable in respect of the share until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.
47. A person becoming entitled to a share by reason of the death of the holder shall be entitled to the same dividends and other rights and advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the share, except that he shall not before being registered as a Member in respect of the share be entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to meetings of the Company.
48. Except by way of transmission causa mortis, any share options granted under share option schemes to the holders of such options are not in any way transferable and can only be exercised by the holders to whom they were originally issued.

FORFEITURE OF SHARES

49. If a Member fails to pay any call or instalment of a call on the day appointed for payment thereof, the Directors may, at any time thereafter during such time as any call or part thereof remains unpaid, require payment of so much of the call or instalment as is unpaid, together with any interests which may have accrued, by means of a notice which shall also name a further day (not earlier than the expiration of fourteen (14) days from the date of service of the notice) on or before which the payment required by the notice is to be made, and shall state that in the event of non-payment at or before, the time appointed, the shares in respect of which the call was made will be liable to forfeiture.
50. If the requirements of such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any share in respect of which the notice has been given may at any time thereafter, before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the Directors to that effect. The Member shall however retain the right to all dividends declared before the call was made and which have not been paid.
51. When any share has been forfeited in accordance with these Articles, notice of the forfeiture shall forthwith be given to the holder of the share or to the person entitled to the share by transmission, as the case may be, and an entry of such notice having been given and of the forfeiture with the date thereof, shall forthwith be made in the register of members relating to the share; but the provisions of this Article are for guidance only and no forfeiture shall be in any manner invalidated by any omission or neglect to give such notice or to make such entry as aforesaid.

52. A forfeited share may be sold or otherwise disposed of on such terms and in such manner as the Directors think fit, and the Company may receive the consideration, if any, given for the share on any sale or disposal thereof and may execute a transfer in favour of the person to whom the share is sold or disposed of, who shall thereupon be registered as a holder of the share. At any time before a sale or disposal, the forfeiture may be cancelled on such terms as the Directors may deem fit.

PROVIDED that while forfeited shares remain with, or under the control of, the Company they shall carry no voting rights, and shall be subject to the provisions of Article 109 of the Act.

53. A person whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a Member in respect of the forfeited shares, but shall, notwithstanding, remain liable to pay to the Company all the moneys which, at the date of the forfeiture were due and payable by him to the Company in respect of the shares. His liability shall however cease if and when the Company shall have received payment in full of all such moneys in respect of the shares.

CONVERSION OF SHARES INTO STOCK

54. The Company may by ordinary resolution convert any fully paid-up shares into stock, and re-convert any stock into fully paid-up shares of any denomination, provided that in the case of Listed Equity Securities it shall comply with the applicable rules and regulations of the Regulated Market on which they are admitted to trading.
55. The holders of stock may transfer the same, or any part thereof, in the same manner and subject to the same regulations, as and subject to which the shares from which the stock arose might previously to conversion have been transferred, or as near thereto as circumstances permit; and the Directors may from time to time fix the minimum amount of stock transferable but so that such minimum shall not exceed the nominal amount of the shares from which the stock arose.
56. The holders of stock shall, according to the amount of stock held by them, have the same rights, privileges and advantages as regards dividends, voting at meetings of the Company and other matters as if they held the shares from which the stock arose, but no such privilege or advantage (except participation in the dividends and profits of the Company and in the assets upon a winding up) shall be conferred by any amount of stock which would not, if existing in shares, have conferred that privilege or advantage.
57. Such of the regulations of the Company as are applicable to paid up shares shall apply to stock, and the words share and shareholder therein shall include "stock" and "stockholder".

ALTERATION OF SHARE CAPITAL

- (e) reduce its share capital, so long as this is superior to the minimum prescribed by law, any capital redemption reserve and any share premium account.

PLEDGING OF SHARES

59. (a) Subject to the provisions of the Act and to the applicable terms of issue, any Equity Securities and/or Debt Securities of the Company may be pledged by the registered holder thereof in favour of any person as security for any obligation. Provided that any terms of issue of Equity Securities and/or Debt Securities may lay down that the securities issued pursuant thereto may not be the subject of a pledge.
- (b) Upon the Company being notified of such a pledge agreement, the Company shall record that fact in the relevant register, and the Company shall recognize all rights validly granted to any third parties and shall act according to and consistently with the terms of such agreement in all matters.
- (c) In the case of a pledge of shares, in so far as and to the extent that such a pledge agreement validly vests third parties with rights pertaining to the shares normally exercisable by the Members, such rights shall be exercisable by the third parties as though they were the Members of the Company to the exclusion of the registered Member or Members.

REGISTERS

60. Any register for Equity Securities and/or Debt Securities shall be kept at the Office. Any register may be kept on magnetic tape or in accordance with some other appropriate mechanical or electronic system, provided that legible evidence can be produced therefrom to satisfy the requirements of the applicable law and of these Articles.

GENERAL MEETINGS

- 63. Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Annual General Meetings of the Company shall be held at such time and place as the Directors shall appoint.
- 64. All General Meetings other than Annual General Meetings shall be called Extraordinary General Meetings.
- 65. The Directors may convene an Extraordinary General Meeting whenever they think fit. Extraordinary General Meetings may also be convened on such requisition, or in default, may be convened by such requisitionists, as provided by Article 129 of the Act. If at any time there are not in Malta sufficient Directors capable of acting to form a quorum, any Director, or any two Members of the Company, may convene an extraordinary general meeting in the same manner, as nearly as possible, as that in which meetings may be convened by the Directors.
- 66. A General Meeting of the Company shall be deemed not to have been duly convened unless at least fourteen (14) days notice have been given in writing, to all those Members entitled to receive such notice. The notice shall be exclusive of the day on which it is served or deemed to be served and of the day for which it was given, and shall specify the place, the day and the hour of the meeting, and in case of special business, the general nature of the business, and shall be given in the manner hereafter prescribed or in such other manner, if any, as prescribed by the Company in General Meeting.
- 67. Any notice of a General Meeting called to consider special business shall be accompanied by a statement regarding the effect and scope of any proposed resolution with respect to such extraordinary business.
- 68. A notice convening an Annual General Meeting shall specify the meeting as such and a notice convening a meeting to pass an extraordinary resolution shall specify the intention to propose the text of the resolution as an extraordinary resolution and the principal purpose thereof.

PROVIDED that a meeting of the Company shall notwithstanding that it is called by shorter notice than that specified in the Articles be deemed to have been duly convened if it is so agreed by all the Members entitled to attend and vote thereat.

- 69. Notice of every General Meeting shall be given to:
 - (a) every registered Member except those Members who (having no registered address in Malta) have not supplied the Company an address for the giving of notices to them; and
 - (b) the Directors; and

(c) the auditor/s for the time being of the Company.

No other persons shall be entitled to receive notice of General Meetings.

70. The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting, by any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings of a meeting.
71. All business shall be deemed special that is transacted at an Extraordinary General Meeting, and also that is transacted at an Annual General Meeting with the exception of declaring a dividend, the consideration of the accounts, balance sheets and the reports of the Directors and the auditors, the election of Directors, the appointment of auditors and the fixing of the remuneration of Directors and the auditors.
72. No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting unless a quorum of Members is present, in person or by proxy, at the time when the meeting proceeds to business; save as herein otherwise provided Members, present in person or by proxy, entitled to attend and vote at the Meeting and holding in aggregate not less than 50% plus one (50% + 1) votes of the shares having voting rights in the Company shall constitute a quorum.
73. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the commencement of the meeting, a quorum is not present, the meeting howsoever called, shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and place or to such other day and at such other time and place as the Directors may determine and if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not yet present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the Members present shall constitute a quorum.
74. The Chairman of the board of Directors shall preside as chairman at every General Meeting of the Company, or if there is no such chairman, or if he shall not be present within twenty (20) minutes from the time appointed for the commencement of the meeting, or is unwilling to act, the Vice Chairman shall act as Chairman of the meeting. If the Vice Chairman is not present at the meeting or is unwilling to act, the Directors present shall elect one of their number, to be chairman of the meeting.
75. At the commencement of any General Meeting, whether annual or extraordinary, the Chairman may lay down to the meeting the procedure which shall be adopted for the proceedings of that meeting. Such procedure shall be binding on the meeting.
76. If at any meeting no Director is willing to act as chairman or if no Director is present within thirty (30) minutes after the time appointed for the commencement of the meeting, the Members shall choose one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.
77. The Chairman may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting) adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unattended or unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a meeting is adjourned for thirty (30) days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjourned meeting or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

78. Unless otherwise provided for in the terms of issue, on a poll, each share in the Company shall give right to one (1) vote at the General Meeting of the Company, irrespective of the class of such share. Such right to vote may be exercised by the holder thereof either personally or by proxy.
79. At any General Meeting a resolution put to the vote shall be determined and decided by a show of hands, unless a poll is demanded, before or on the declaration of the result of a show of hands, by:
- (i) the Chairman; or
 - (ii) by at least three (3) Members present in person or by proxy; or
 - (iii) any Member or Members present in person or by proxy and representing not less than one-tenth of the total voting power of all Members having the right to vote at that meeting; or
 - (iv) a Member or Members present in person or by proxy holding shares in the Company conferring a right to vote at the meeting, being shares on which an aggregate sum has been paid up equal to not less than one-tenth of the total sum paid up on all the shares conferring that right.

Unless a poll be so demanded, a declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost and an entry to that effect in the minute book is made, it shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without need for the proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution;

PROVIDED that where a resolution requires a particular majority in value, the resolution shall not be deemed to have been passed on a show of hands by the required majority unless there be present at that meeting whether in person or by proxy, a number of Members holding in the aggregate the required majority as aforesaid.

The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.

80. Except in the case where a poll is demanded on the election of a Chairman or on a question of adjournment, if a poll is duly demanded it shall be taken in such manner as the Chairman directs and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
81. A poll demanded on the election of a Chairman or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken at such time as the Chairman of the Meeting directs, and any business other than that upon which a poll has been demanded may be proceeded with pending the taking of the poll.
82. Subject to any rights or restrictions for the time being attached to any class or classes of shares, on a show of hands every Member shall have one (1) vote, and on a poll every Member shall have one (1) vote for each share of which he is the holder. On a poll, a Member entitled to more than one (1) vote need not, if he votes, whether in person or by proxy, use all his votes or cast all the votes he uses in the same way.
83. In the case of equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote.

- 84. No Member shall be entitled to vote at any General Meeting unless all calls or other sums presently payable by him in respect of shares in the Company have been paid.
- 85. No objection shall be raised to the qualifications of any voter except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is given or tendered and every vote not disallowed at such meeting shall be valid for all purposes. Any such objection made in due time shall be referred to the chairman of the meeting, whose decision shall be final and conclusive.
- 86. The appointment of a proxy shall be by an instrument in the following form or a form as near thereto as circumstances permit:

FIMBank p.l.c.

The instrument, telefax, or cable appointing a proxy may contain a direction to the proxy to vote for or against a particular resolution or resolutions but unless such a direction be given the proxy may vote as he thinks fit; and an instrument, telefax, or cable appointing a proxy shall be deemed to include the power to demand, join or concur in demanding a poll on behalf of the appointor.
- 88. The instrument appointing a proxy, together with the power of attorney (if any) under which it is signed or a notarially certified copy thereof or the telefax or cable appointing a proxy pursuant to the last preceding Article shall be respectively deposited or received at the registered office of the Company at least twenty-four (24) hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting, adjourned meeting or the taking of a poll at which the person named in such instrument proposes to vote; otherwise the person so named shall not be entitled to vote in respect thereof.

PROVIDED that if only one of the aforesaid majorities is obtained, another Meeting shall be convened within thirty (30) days for the purposes of taking a fresh vote on the proposed resolution. At the said second Meeting, the resolution shall be deemed to have been validly carried if it has been passed by a Member or Members having the right to attend and vote at the Meeting holding in the aggregate not less than seventy-five per cent (75%) in nominal value of the shares represented and entitled to vote at the Meeting.

PROVIDED FURTHER that, if more than half in nominal value of all the shares having the right to vote at the meeting is represented at that Meeting, a simple majority in nominal value of such shares so represented shall suffice.

92. A resolution in writing signed by all the members for the time being entitled to receive notice of and to attend and vote at General Meetings or being persons other than natural persons by their duly authorised representatives shall be valid and effective as if the same had been passed at a general meeting of the company duly convened and held and may consist of two or more documents in like form each signed by one or more of the Members.

A record of such declaration shall be entered into the Company's minute books.

For the purposes of Article 120 of these Articles, such Director shall be referred to as a "Conflicted Director."

120. Unless the other non-conflicted Directors of the Company otherwise resolve, a Conflicted Director shall:
 - (i) not be counted in the quorum present for the meeting;

121. The Directors on behalf of the Company may pay a gratuity or pension or allowance on retirement to any Director who has held any other salaried office or place of profit with the Company or to his widow or dependants and may make contributions to any fund and pay premia for the purchase or provision of any such gratuity, pension or allowance.

PROVIDED that a resolution to this effect has been approved by the Members in General Meeting.

122. The Directors shall cause minutes to be kept in books provided for the purpose:

123. The Directors shall meet together for the dispatch of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings as they think fit. Questions arising at any meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes. In the case of equality of votes, the Chairman shall have a second or casting vote. The Chairman may, and the Secretary shall on the requisition of a Director, at any time summon a meeting of the Board of Directors.
124. (a) The quorum necessary for the transaction of business shall be such number of Directors as constitutes for the time being a majority of the Directors appointed on the board, present in person or by their Alternate Director.

125. Notice of every meeting of the Board of Directors shall be given to all Directors of the Company and, save as hereinafter provided, shall in no case be of less than seven (7) days. Notice of meetings of Directors to any Director for the time being absent from Malta or residing abroad, shall be given at such address as such Director has informed the Company. The requirement of such notice may be waived by a decision of all Directors entitled to receive notice and vote at a meeting of the Directors.
126. If at any time the Chairman is not present within thirty (30) minutes after the time appointed for the commencement of proceedings of the meeting, the Vice Chairman shall chair the meeting. In the absence of both the Chairman and Vice Chairman, the Directors may choose one of their number to chair the meeting.
127. The Directors may, from time to time, appoint one or more of their body to the office of Managing Director for such period and on such terms as they think fit, and, subject to the terms of any agreement entered into in any particular case, may revoke such appointment. His appointment shall be automatically determined if he ceases for any cause to be a director.
128. A Managing Director shall receive such remuneration as the Directors, subject to the approval of the Company in General Meeting, may from time to time determine.
129. The Directors may entrust to and confer upon the Chairman, Vice Chairman, Managing Director and Board Review and Implementation Committee any of the powers exercisable by them upon such terms and conditions and with such restrictions as they may think fit, and either collaterally with or to the exclusion of their own powers may from time to time revoke, withdraw, alter or vary all or any of such powers.

130. A resolution in writing, signed by all the directors for the time being entitled to receive notice of a meeting of the directors, shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the directors duly convened and held.
131. The Directors shall cause proper minutes to be made of all General Meetings of the Company and also of all appointments of officers and of the proceedings of all meetings of directors and committees, and of the attendances thereat, and all business transacted at such meetings; and any such minutes of any meeting, if purporting to be signed by the Chairman of such meeting or by the Chairman of the next succeeding meeting, shall be conclusive evidence without any further proof of the fact therein stated.

132. (a) The person representing the Company may by instrument in writing delegate his powers of representation, including the power to sub-delegate, to such other persons as he deems fit.
- (b) Without prejudice to the provisions of Clause 8 of the Memorandum of Association, the Company may upon resolution of its Board of Directors, appoint by instrument in writing any person as its legal and/or judicial representative with full powers, including the power of substitution, to represent the Company, and in particular but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, to enter into any agreement, whether by public deed or by private writing or instrument, on behalf of the Company, and to sign and execute any documents on behalf of the Company.
- (c) For the purposes of this Article, an authenticated extract of the minutes of the Board of Directors shall be treated as an instrument in writing.

133. (a) The Board of Directors may appoint a secretary for such term, at such remuneration and upon such conditions as they think fit, and any secretary so appointed may be removed by them.
- (b) The Company Secretary shall be responsible for keeping:
- (i) the minute book of general meetings of the company;
 - (ii) the minute book of meetings of the Board of Directors;
 - (iii) the register of members;

In the case of Listed Equity Securities or Listed Debt Securities, the Company Secretary shall be entitled to rely fully on the information supplied to him by the Central Securities Depository, if any, to whom duties have been delegated by the Directors in accordance with these Articles.

- (c) The Company Secretary shall:
 - (i) ensure that proper notices are given to all meetings; and
 - (ii) ensure that all returns and other documents of the Company are prepared and delivered in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act.

DIVIDENDS & RESERVES

- 134. The Company in General Meeting may declare dividends, but no dividend shall exceed the amount recommended by the Directors.
- 135. The Directors may from time to time pay to the Members such interim dividends as appear to the Directors to be justified by the profits of the Company.
- 136. No dividend shall be paid otherwise than out of the profits of the Company available for distribution.
- 137. Without prejudice to the relevant provisions of the Banking Act currently in force the Directors may, before recommending any dividend, set aside out of the profits of the Company available for distribution any such sum as they think proper as a reserve or reserves which shall, at the discretion of the Directors be applicable for any purpose to which the profits of the Company may be properly applied, and pending such application may, at the like discretion, either be employed in the business of the Company or be invested in such investments (other than shares of the Company) as the Directors may from time to time think fit. The Directors may divide any such reserve into such special funds as they think fit, and may consolidate into one fund any special funds or any parts of any special funds into which the reserve may have been divided as they think fit. The Directors may also, without placing the same to reserve, carry forward any profits which they think prudent not to divide.
- 138. Subject to any rights of persons, if any, entitled to shares with special rights as to dividends, all dividends shall be declared and paid according to the amounts paid or credited as paid on the shares in respect whereof the dividend is paid but no amount paid or credited as paid on the share in advance of calls shall be treated for the purpose of this regulation as paid on the shares. All dividends shall be apportioned and paid proportionately to the amounts paid or credited as paid on the shares during any portion or portions of the period in respect of which the dividend is paid; but if any share is issued on terms providing that it shall rank for dividend as from a particular date, such share shall rank for dividend accordingly.
- 139. The Directors may deduct from any dividend payable to any Member all sums of money (if any) presently payable by him to the Company on account of calls or otherwise in relation to the shares of the Company.
- 140. Any dividend or other moneys payable in respect of a share may, at the Company's discretion, be paid in any one of the following ways:
 - (i) by warrant sent through the post (i) and directed to the registered address of the holder or, in the case of a share held jointly by more than one person, to the registered address of the person nominated and named in the relevant register of Members. Should there be no such nomination, the dividend shall be paid to the registered address of the first named joint holder appearing on the relevant register of Members; or

- (ii) by electronic means directly to the bank account designated by the holder or, in the case of a share held jointly by more than one person, to the account of the holder nominated and named in the relevant register of Members. Should there be no such nomination, the dividend shall be paid in the account of the first named joint holder appearing on the relevant register of Members.

PROVIDED that where the account number of a Member is not known, the dividend may be kept by the Company for collection by the Member entitled to such dividend or for remittance when the account number of the said Member is made known to the Company;

PROVIDED FURTHER that, in the case of a share held jointly by joint holders, any such holders may give an effective and valid receipt for all dividends and payments on account of dividends and payments in respect of such share. The payment of dividend to any account of one of the joint holders shall be deemed to be a good discharge to the Company;

PROVIDED FURTHER that nothing in these Articles shall preclude the Company from offering to pay dividends to its Members by any other means, including but not limited to scrip dividends.

- 141. Every such payment shall be effected at the risk of the Member entitled to the payment and shall be deemed a good discharge to the Company. The Company shall not be responsible for any amounts lost or delayed in the course of making the payments detailed in Article 140.
- 142. The payment by the Directors of any unclaimed dividend or other moneys payable on or in respect of a share into a separate account shall not constitute the Company as a trustee or nominee thereof and any dividend remaining unclaimed for a period of five (5) years from the date of declaration of such dividend may at the discretion of the Directors, be subject to forfeiture and reversion to the Company:

PROVIDED that the Directors shall not cause such forfeiture in circumstances of which they have actual knowledge where a claim is still possible at law, either by the Member or his successor in title.

- 143. No dividend shall bear interest against the Company.

ACCOUNTS

- 144. The Directors shall from time to time determine whether and to what extent, time and place and under what conditions or regulations the accounts and books of the Company or any of them shall be open to the inspection of Members not being Directors, and no Member (not being a Director) shall have any right of inspecting any account, or book or document except as conferred by law or authorised by the Directors or by the Company in general meeting, always without prejudice to the provisions of the Banking Act, currently in force.
- 145. Without prejudice to the relevant provisions of the Banking Act, currently in force, the Directors shall cause a copy of the profit and loss account and balance sheet, including any document required by law to be annexed thereto, which are to be laid before the company in General Meeting (together with any Directors' and auditor's report attached thereto) to be delivered, or sent by post, or otherwise made available in any form or manner as may be required or permitted by law, to every Member of the Company and other persons entitled to receive notices of General Meetings, at least fourteen (14) days prior to the Annual General Meeting.

CAPITALISATION OF PROFITS

146. Without prejudice to the relevant provisions of the Banking Act, currently in force, the Company in General Meeting may upon the recommendation of the Directors resolve that it is desirable to capitalise any part of the amount for the time being standing to the credit of the Company's reserve accounts or to the credit of the profit and loss account or otherwise available for distribution, and accordingly that such sum be set free for distribution amongst the Members who would have been entitled thereto if distributed by way of dividend and in the same proportions on condition that the same be not paid in cash but be applied either in or towards paying up any amounts for the time being unpaid on any shares held by such Members respectively or paying up in full unissued shares or debentures of the Company to be allotted, distributed and credited as fully paid up to and amongst such Members in the proportion aforesaid, and the Directors shall give effect to such resolution;

PROVIDED that a share premium account and a capital redemption reserve fund, for the purposes of this regulation, may only be applied in the paying up of unissued shares to Members of the Company as fully paid bonus shares;

PROVIDED FURTHER that the Directors may in giving effect to such resolution make such provision by payment in cash or otherwise as they deem fit, for the case of shares or debentures becoming distributable in fractions.

147. A notice or any other document may be served by the Company upon any Member either personally or by sending it through the post in a prepaid letter addressed to such Member at his registered address as appearing in the register of Members.

148. Any notice or other document, if served or sent by ordinary post to an address in Malta or if served or sent by airmail post to an address outside Malta shall be deemed to have been served or delivered seven (7) days after the time when the letter containing the same is put into the post and in proving service or sending it shall be sufficient to prove that the letter containing the notice or document was properly addressed and put into the post office as a prepaid letter or prepaid airmail letter as the case may be.

151. Any notice required to be or which may be given by advertisement shall be advertised once only in any two newspapers.

152. If postal services in Malta shall be curtailed or suspended so that the Company is unable to give effective notice by post of a general meeting, notice of a general meeting may be given by advertisement as provided in the preceding Article and shall be deemed to have been given on the day of publication therein mentioned. In such event the Company shall as soon as practicable (and, if able to do so prior to the date of the general meeting) send notice by post to all Members.
153. The signature to any notice to be given by the Company may be written or printed.

SECRECY

154. Without prejudice to the Professional Secrecy Act, 1994 (Cap.377, Laws of Malta), every Director, secretary, auditor and employee of the Company shall observe strict secrecy with regard to all dealings, transactions and other matters of a confidential nature of and concerning the Company and with regard to all transactions of the Company with its customers, the state of their accounts and matters relating thereto, except when required or authorised to disclose particulars thereof by the Directors, the person to whom such matters relate, or by law and except in so far as may be necessary in order to comply with any of the provisions of these Articles; and every Director, secretary, auditor or employee shall sign a declaration to the above effect in such form as the Directors may from time to time prescribe.

WINDING-UP

155. All holders of ordinary shares shall rank "pari passu" upon any distribution of assets in a winding up. The holders of preference shares of the Company shall at all times rank prior to the holders of ordinary shares upon any distribution of assets in a winding up. As between the holders of different issues of preference shares they shall rank in accordance with the relative terms of issue of those preference shares.
156. Unless the Members in General Meeting approve otherwise, upon the voluntary liquidation of the Company, no commission or fee shall be paid to a liquidator. Any amount which the Directors propose to pay to a liquidator shall be notified to all Members at least seven (7) days prior to the meeting at which it is to be considered.

INDEMNITY

157. Every Director, Managing Director, agent or secretary, and in general any officer of the Company shall be indemnified out of the assets of the Company against all losses or liabilities (including any such liability as is mentioned in the Act) which he may sustain or incur in or about the execution of the duties of his office or otherwise in relation thereto, and no Director, auditor or other officer shall be liable for any loss, damage or misfortune which may happen to be incurred by the Company in execution of the duties of his office or in relation thereto and against any liability incurred by him in defending any proceedings related to the Company's business or affairs, whether civil or criminal, in which judgement is given in his favour or in which he is acquitted.
